LIFE AFTER THE RESURRECTION

RECAP: Over the past two weeks, we've examined John 20 and Jesus' interaction with his disciples after his resurrection. Tonight, we move to the book of _____. We move from _____ to _____.

LEADING QUESTION: If what you need is promised but not yet present, what do you do in the space between expectation and manifestation?

LESSON

For _____ days, Jesus stayed on earth after his resurrection, to which, according to Acts 1, he appeared more to his disciples and others, proving that he was alive and giving final instructions before his ascension.

LESSON 1: WAITING IS NOT PUNISHMENT, BUT IT'S PREPARATION- vs.4–5: This is not a suggestion; it is an instruction. The same disciples who walked with Jesus are now told to stop moving.

•

Waiting, in this context, is not _____; it is _____.

Uncomfortable Truth: Some of us are not waiting on God; instead, we are trying to move ahead of God.

Application: Learn how to stay when God says stay. Use your waiting season to pray more, not panic more, but to seek God's presence, not just his promises.

LESSON 2: _____-vs.

8a: The word dynamis points to _____. This is not an enhancement; instead, it is enablement.

LESSON 3: _____-vs. 8b-11:

•

Witness is not _____; it is strategic and progressive.

- Jerusalem = _____; Judea = _____
- Samaria = _____; Ends of the earth = everywhere God sends you.

Uncomfortable Truth: Many people want to witness in Samaria and beyond, but avoid Jerusalem.

Application:

Closing Question: Are you trying to represent Jesus in your own strength, or are you truly relying on the power He promised to guide, sustain, and send you?
